Quote:well, nice history. I think the same about the old beta. I agree on almost all points. (but I can play it on Gamespy Arcade and on WoL)

Can't imagine some people play that old shit... so what ?

Last try to bring back the flame war ? failed, I asked my whole team to not bash renalert mod or it's team on all C&C forums.

But you can go on with that but without us.

I didn't even worked for the old beta. Almost all the team is new.

And I am happy that some Renalert members and Reborn members are chill with each other (not all, but some)

(oh and plz, don't ask to the members of my forum to bash reborn. You asked that to some reborn fans, they refused and you banned them from here, that's a bad behaviour.)

Well I think I will be banned also now, so cya to all my renalert mates if I get banned. (I still love your works)

That's what I wanted to post after a nice story about 'reborn bashed' again.

I didn't have time to finish it. I am banned... :rolleyes:

Your posting permissions have been removed

Well, nice. At least you can read it. Maybe the post was deleted on RenAlert Forum. Some people want flame. They won't have it from me anymore.

(To all reborn fans, no bashing, no arguing... 'Ignore' is better)
