I've been playing my bass since May, and I think I'm pretty good for someone who's been playing just that long (not being cocky or anything =)). I've got a Fender Squier P-Bass with a 20 Watt Stagg amp (Probably going to get a new one). I've also self taught myself with the piano and I've been doing that for about 6 years now. I can play the trumpet and trombone, I've been doing that for years now too (Lost count);
