ugh, ince most people here are using Fahrenheit, I'll redo my post with that instead of Celsius.

Quote:his can raise the temperature in the middle of a cold snap (-20C, -30C with wind chill, for an example) to plus temperatures(+2C, + 10C for example).

Change that to...

his can raise the temperature in the middle of a cold snap (-4F , -22F with wind chill, for an example) to plus temperatures (+35F, + 50F for example).
