j_ball430I've been trying to look at that from a military point of view, and it's just way beyond anything logical. Plus, it wouldn't work. I wouldn't give a damn how hot a chick was if she's the enemy that we're fighting. Especially if she's putting me in danger of my own life. I'm gonna shoot the bitch.

You're entirely missing the point of the bombs containing chemicals. Funny substances, chemicals. Sometimes, they change the way you look and think at times. Times like war. Which is what this project was based on.

Thinking caps on, please.
