gbull - you're missing the point entirely.

NeoSaber - that article actually has a table of all appearing guests on shows. It's a little easier to compare and contrast than what you saw on FOX that day.

msgtpain - that was a conversation starter, duh.

Oh, and your website link is retarded. It says that the majority of America believes the media is liberally biased. But then, its factual tables at the bottom state that the majority of people believe the media is biased. Not liberally.
