It's a cheat similar to bighead, it makes ALL characters have invisible bigheads, including black hand snipers and stuff. When a player is using it, all GDI characters look like Havoc and all Nod characters look like Petrova (except for their heads and weapons) As you can see, he's actually a Deadeye (look at his ammo count - sniper rifle, and his head)

Once we suspended his account, he re-registered on the forums under the name NovaNovember, from the same IP. He posted a picture on several threads which makes IE crash just looking at it, though Firefox is OK.

His IP:69.136.67.175. We're gonna have a little fun with him.
