It's to the cheaters' advantage to boast and brag that they bypassed RenGuard even if they haven't. It's their job to keep people off of it by casting uncertainty as to its effectiveness.

I won't say it's unbypassable. I will say that MANY people are lying, flat out, about being able to. RenGuard protects you from 99% of potetial cheaters, while NOT running it protects you from 0%.

Furthermore, we have had 2,586,796 player logins to RenGuard since its inception. I bet none of those cheats can claim they've been used that many times.
