Here's a question. Why do you need a Dedicated Server in the first place? There are already at least twenty or thirty dedicated servers online Westwood or GameSpy at any given time which cover everything. C&C Mode, Marathon, Infantry-Only, Team Deathmatch mode, Capture the Flag, Sniper Arena, InstaGib, Co-Op mode(more or less), and even a couple of "RPG" servers. Yes, I know there's no real way to run BRenBot in non-dedicated mode(feel free to correct me if I'm wrong), and yes, I realize that sometimes you just don't want to be in-game all the time, but seriously. There are more than enough servers out there at any given time. Plenty. No matter what you might "do differently," chances are, it's been done.
