I really wish 50 cent would fuck off and leave the music industry alone.

Eminem at least has talent, I love his re-make of Dream On by Aerosmith. His lyrics have meaning most of the time. There are still songs I don't like mind you.

And 50 cent, argh don't get me started. With him it's all about "bitches in the ho-wagon" etc. How on Earth he got a record deal I don't know.
