1. Redirecting pointless threads from their intended subjects. If nopic didn't insult Hurricane Katrina victims, it wouldn't have been turned into a thread about penguins.

Hmm... seems like repression of his opinions for yours to me. He had a thread about Katrina, you didn't like it, so you wanted to change it to something that fell into your own ideals.

2. We're only repressing the spammy threads. Hell, I even defended nopic's 9/11 thread, so we're not out to get any specific people. Care to try again?

"Spammy" threads are up to the mods, they can lock them if they want. No need to waste time and cause confusion by having a thread with one title but about something completely different.

3. I seem to have a much better grasp on reality than you do, and if that seems arrogant, then so be it. I don't need your approval to feel worthy.

Yeah, I'm the arrogant one.

The threats were hot air. I knew ben would relinquish the image from his signature if I had enough of a convincing threat. It appeared to be a threat, but it was more of a manipulation. Whether manipulation or not, it was still an idle threat.

Suing someone over an E-Terrorist logo is unrealistic, even while technically possible. Nobody would pay the amount it would take to prosecute such a case, let alone finding a lawyer who would do it without charging you an arm and a leg for handling such a frivolous case.
