1. Yes 49 / 86%

2. No 8 / 14%

I normally wouldn't care about a n00b like him but he (helps) give this place a bad name. At some point a foot needs to be shoved up an ass to get the point across that this forum isn't here for the cheating, lying, annoying, worthless, spamming, flaming, threatening, retarded fools to have their fun. Now, can we expand this vote to include a few of the others that have posted here?

Ask Crimson.

I was just thinking that about you. Get a life bro, you voted now move on.

Speaking of flaming and as for the comment on expanding the vote to include others that have posted here, was that a voluntary statement?

Bit hypocritical to say this forum isn't for flaming, to then personally flame Jake!?! Beside the fact that Jake isn't the only one to have voted and then replied more than once on this topic. So were you also intending to aim similar responses to other people?

Just so you know, I'm not flaming you here, just pointing out a few things that seem to clash with your statement.
