I say temporary ban for at least a week or two. A month would probably be good. He just needs to learn not to steal others' work and to not post such random bullshit things that nobody cares about at all. Not to mention that he needs to mature a little more. If deadfive, glyde, etc... have matured over time, I'm sure nopic will eventually. I'm not saying I expect it any time soon, but anything's possible.
