Overall it's a pretty good map. I played around in it for a quite a while by myself just to pinpoint some of the bugs and areas that could be improved. I think its a great concept for a map though, so GJ.

Two things I forgot to mention in the SS below are - maybe since we've got a gloomy sky in the map, you could add some effects such as rain and lightning, like the stuff from the second SP mission (Rescue and Retribution).
