I don't know what's going on. I frankly don't really care beyond being amused that you wasted your time showing that you're a moron that can belittle another moron. Congratulations? Do you want a fucking cookie?

I don't know Serenity, I don't know you, or JeepMoron over there. What I do know is that you need to follow the shit you just preached. "Grow up and get a life" how about you shut the fuck up and stop using those two overused, lame insults?

Why don't you shut the fuck up and tend to your own house as I just have, because I do know me and I know her so this situation and thread involves us and not you...I've sat back and watched assholes berate her enough and I have no obligation to let those assshats pathetic ranting go unanswered...if it pisses people off to have a foot shoved up their ass or down their throats for talking shit, then they shouldn't of opened their mouths in the first place to "TRY" to slam her for their own problems in life...

And yes I want a fucking cookie and it better not be some cheap as sugar cookie...it better be oatmeal and have lots of brown sugar and some god damn raisins...FROM the California grape vine...none of the cheap mid west crap raisins...
