True, but notice that he was an sbh, and judging by the laser shot through the sniper window, this screen was taken in the tunnel up against the Nod base (I know lizard, so I can ask him to verify this if you'd like), so there was plenty of time for him to take a screenshot of the Deadeye before he was seen and killed. I'm pretty sure he deliberately did that so we wouldn't see the HUD. He also had been trying to get me onto the bridge to take a second screenshot with him, but regardless, he had already left and rejoined the game, so any screenshot after that (including this one) could not prove innocence.
