Any1 interested in joining my renegade clan go to http://warrockerz.aceboard.com and sign up there.We have 2 people in the clan so far and some other people waiting to join. We have no upcoming events yet. Once we get enough people we can arange some tournaments or something. If clan members are wanting a clan server I might be able to get one. I have good tricks and other things i can share with the clan members to help them and make the game more fun. My clan is both westwood and gamespy.
