Mammoth Tank

Nod is attacking and the AGT is on its last breath,
Engineers are repairing to keep it from death.
A Mammoth Tank is chosen and I head for the door,
I jump in and head towards the enemy to settle this score.
Missiles and rounds soon find their target and strike fear,

My tank is like new, all shiny, waxed, and washed.
The Mammoth may not be faster than a two-legged turtle,
But destroying a supported Mammoth is quite a hurdle.
In the right hands it is a force to be reckoned with,
The tales of the Mammoth being weak are surely a myth.
