EvilWhiteDragon wrote on Mon, 04 June 2007 19:08since you can set the recs differently per server/ per bot, I dont think it's a good idea really...

Aye

some servers rec automatically, others dont

some will rec you for just repairing a building, and others will require other users to rec you, and some allow users to n00b other players, which is a negative rep.

Plus, anyone could get a bunch of mates, go into a server, and rec each other...
