Well, start up renguard, joined jelly 2 (20 player server)
It was islands felt like sniping went into the tunnels, went around killed a few peps, mid game a guy "beriney" shows up in the tunnels killing everyone, he started from 0/2, to 17/2 in about 10min. He killed me twice, and it wasnt even hugging, i could see him aiming at me directly thro the glass, at which point I got suspicious. What do you know, pops out headshot, it happenes twice. Meanwhile he been in the tunnels, and has had to get ammo refills but has been full health.
Meet him in the tunnels again, turn on fraps, boom, get em half health with a havoc by hugging, he goes around the corner. As im comming around, I see an engi pop out of the nod side of the tunnels and runs towards us (the person had no idea what they were doing), he was facing me but closer to the engi running at him (he was facing me and didnt see the engi), next second, what do you know, he does a 180 turn and looks directly at the engi, then manually spins himself around and I die.

I get out of rene, no video, appearently fraps wont record if oyu dont have enought space, but I still had like 500mb left on my hdd (i know its low but still). So i got to jelly 2 IRC to see if I could en explantion or anything from him. Hes says a few things:

1)I asked if he uses renguard, he said: "not atm". Make your own assumptions.
2)he tries to say it was "x", rofl.
3)btw did I mention hes a "trial mod/admin"?
