Well, I see your guys' points and they are valid. So I guess this idea won't pull through after all sadly. But I plan on sharing my server side mod and AI Bot list (as I've released the first version). I'll be redoing the new AI Bots soon to make them less tough (due to too many complaints about them being 'way too' strong XD).

Thank you all for your valid points and voting. I'd say that this idea will never fly.
