What? No... I do that all the time and I don't have any mods on my game. Not even a skin... it really isn't that hard to get those kind of scores..

Simply play on a large server and use guerrilla tactics. Easiest to do it with an Orca. But you are right, people do suspect cheating when they see scores like that... which is why I always run Fraps when I play Renegade. Someone says I'm cheating, I offer to make a video of me playing for the next 10 min proving that I'm not... sure it is a hassle, but people don't really know how to find cheaters anymore
