Oh yeah "she's in a better place" bullshit. Nothing like self-consolation!

Which is the reason the death of a loved one will be very painful to me. To me, they are gone forever...erased out of time. All that remains will be their sacred grave, good deeds, their relationship to me, my memory of them, their photographs and the items they left behind.

Think about that deeply ^^

People made religion to explain things. Not to be immortal.
