I can to some degree see Russia becoming a new super power within Europe. Russia now has the money it build itself up once again and I don't think that's any bad thing. You will get people saying there will be a 'cold war 2' but I don't believe a word of it to be honest. Russia's resources with a bit of luck will one day be used for positive means. I am by no means saying Russia are perfect but I think they have cleaned their image up quite a bit bar a few fuck ups (everyone is human...).

So when Russia blackmails half of Europe with their natural gas resources....will you still respect them?

us and uk are on the same side, we kicked your asses 200 years ago, dont make us do it again.

Read a history book. You were getting raped and had to beg the French to bail you out.

How humiliating.

While I don't agree with kikiller's version of history...your reply is ironic...seeing how your country had us bailing you out of several of your wars.
