By the way chaps, it's got to the point where there is absolutely no point in arguing subject with somebody who, in their mind, is never wrong... with somebody that has no sense of logic or sense. There's no point in trying to state the above to them either because as far as they are concerned you are plain wrong.

The only opinion that matters to these guys is their own. God forbid anybody gives them any constructive criticism in the future.

I say drop it and just post cat pictures to annoy them.
