LOL? You are denying you gloat about being a temp mod of all things (LMFAO), on an online gaming server, for a game, that you yourself claim is "crappy"? Um, I would check your n00bstories forum signature Haha, disgrace has never had such a spot on definition.

You mean this beauty?

I think you missed the joke. If that doesn't say self-deprecation, I don't know what does.

Any computer game is crappy, to be honest. It's just not one of my high priorities. I play Renegade, because it's the only game on my laptop, and because the NS community is pretty good. But compared to revving an engine, or cutting through some powder, a computer game is just a computer game. I'm sure you'd agree.

All this because I made a couple cracks about Clanwars.

I love this place.
