Hopefully, if the guy is willing, I will be getting a 360 from a 66 charger. If that comes in, out goes the stock rear end and diff. And in comes dual exhaust and the biggest drivable engine in our driveway (that can drive, this eliminates the 50 caddy with the 503 ci motor)

Dante, you should have gotten the Charger orange, or whatever its called Dayotona. Still, it is a badass car, but you should have waited a few years to get the Challenger that is coming out this spring. I sooooooo want that car. pants
