I play it occasionaly but not really as much as Renegade and Planetside. I bought the game when it was released (pre-ordered) and installed it. I played the China campaign to about mission 5 then never played the game for around 2 months after it because I was playing Renegade. Even now i rarely play it.

What is the Alt+F4 crap. I know you can do it in normal play and I guess you can in multiplayer. I take it does something like exit from the multiplayer game and record no disconnect?
