Make a bunch of new forum categories for the Clans. Have individual forums for each clan (they can pm you[crimson] to set up a new one), for each clan set up two forums, a public one, and a private one. Than set up a group for each, each group contains only the clan members, and make the clan leader the group moderator (so he can add more clan members to the group), this group is the only one, besides the board mods who can enter the private forum.

Example:

"|cLaN|"
Public Forum
Private Forum

"|Team Clann|"
Public Forum
Private Forum

"AnOtHeR ClaN"
Public Forum
Private Forum

etc.
