When you are nod, go though tunnel, bear left, go up stairs an u come out on centre.

Tib field to the left (you can see Bar ahead). Run across tib field, run up ramp, making sure you are not seen. Wait until the coast is clear, then slide down cliff and run into bar.

If you're feeling confident and the enemy is a bunch of numptys, you could try running to the left of the bar, go behind and then sneak into the rear entrance of the ref.

OMG! I click on this thread to say something I do all the time on Complex and I find you have already said it in fine detail! WOW, kannies you rock!

Also, what I do is hide to the left of Barr if the entrance is mined. Nobody seems to check near that side Imfao. And then you can sneak up to the curved entrance, disarm 1 or 2 mines, then hide again. I did this once ending up killing the Barr...it was probably one of the most tense Complex game I ever played.
