Can all those CW.CC players going "OMG MY CLANWARS WILL FAIL!!!!" please remember there are people who play in public servers (and don't start your normal prejudiced atitude about publics, before I challenge you (just you) to take on a whole team of random public server players, for lols) and those who play in publics are easily the majority, even if we're less vocal, for the most part.

don't make the mistake of assuming blly and nune actually know what they're talking about when they say a particular change will make clanwars 'fail'... yeah because you've played so many games in the past months.

in pubs too, get a sbh to nuke bar on walls fly on back corner farthest from pp and have an apache come in and its gg.

but you guys arent listening.
