hey,

I have played online on one computer, but on the other one where there isn't a real version of the game won't see any of the games online.

Maybe there could be an other problem which causes this. So sorry if I mistake me with this.

But I do know how to play online,

I often go to Wittebolx so

But the other computer doesn't have to go online, I only want to LAN own made maps

with it like Co-op

Grtz,

Brian
