From a Server Owner perspective, I don't see the need to look at people's PM's except for general curiosity.

I don't think there's someone out there that's honestly going to tell people "lmao *cheat* is so fucking win". Then still, you could never know the level of retardness nowadays in ren.

I wouldn't want to play on a server that logs my PM's, and I am sure that other people would agree with me on this.
