What the fuck is wrong with you people?

Have you not ever heard someone say fuck without yelling?

Has nobody ever just told you that you may be retarded without screaming it at you?

I did not type in CAPS once through out that conversation.

Why does everyone assume that if you tell someone they are fucking retarded on the internet, that you must be banging your head on your desk?

I simply think Puddle and some of you are retarded, I am not all pissed off as you guys seem to think.

You prolly think I am retarded, are you all pissed off about this? Are you banging your head on you desk because of this topic?

Prolly fucking not.

You're just not getting the point.

People aren't just commenting on what you said to him, it's cos you said it despite being in a position of authority.

let me say that again, maybe you'll understand it this time: You are a moderator so shouldn't talk to people, at the place you moderate, like you're a complete prick.

I'll reiterate again: You should be talking to them maturely. In this case you should have just muted him, and when he asked why, tell him exactly why you did it, and if he continues to mither you...just ignore him.

Nobody cares that it's 'just' the internet. Do you act like this on the internet to make up for something in real life, or do you actually talk like that to people you meet?

Enough of the narrow-mindedness. Start seeing that this is about that you are a mod there yet talked to him like you've only just learnt how to swear.
