With vehicles with two muzzles (barrels) and only one weapon type the W3D engine makes secondary fire use only the left barrel.

Primary in flamer: Both barrels fire at same speed
Secondary in flamer: Although flames come out both barrels, the right one does nothing and the left one 'fires' twice as fast.

Easiest to demonstrate in a rocket emplacement.