tellsson wrote on Fri, 02 October 2009 08:21 you both talked clearly about the player-loss ingame, and so i did answer you that only 2 ppls did treat you INGAME.

That ppls flaming you in the forums is another pair of shoes.

I can see why you think that, but are they so separate? No matter how disgustingly the mods+admins treat somebody on the forum, it can't possibly put them off playing in the server?

tellsson wrote on Fri, 02 October 2009 08:21 like i said earlier, you have a diplomatic way to attack/insult/provocate ppls in the forums. And i'm sure you know what i mean.

I do NOT know what you mean at all. I don't think there is anything wrong with the way I debate stuff like the pointsfix, and nobody has ever successfully explained that there is. Plenty of people have tried and failed CATASTROPHICALLY (gladiator is probably the best example of this, and of course everybody jumps all over his post like he's just achieved world peace or something, whereas anyone can plainly see he's talking COMPLETE bollocks) tellsson wrote on Fri, 02 October 2009 08:21 I could explain it easy, but in german coz my english isnt that good.

Lets make an experiment. We make a debate in german and i want that you talk in german also.

Then you can easy see where the problem is, why i dont make big debates in english.

Two problems. 1. I never said I could speak German. 2. I don't generally hang around forums where speaking German is the norm.
