lol, no need to exaggerate buddy. you JUST BARELY won and then you said i was one of the best tanks you'd ever played, and what's more, if I hadn't lagged out of your AGT you wouldn't have won at all.

Tildeth wrote Why is there a need for further compromise (ie. Giving up power and control of servers on the list), if we already compromised by agreeing to the loss of ladder?
The situations aren't equivalent. You "agreeing to the loss of ladder" in pointsbug servers is not a compromise, because TT doesn't have a monopoly on ladders. We're just the only people who can be bothered making one, just like I was with the clan ladder.
