Havoc 89djlaptopJust in case you didn't understand his reply...

<http://www.beaconpedestal.com/ack-reply.mp3>

i agree thats funny...

but why do you people have such a big problem with him...

i will never understand

hes just tring to help in his own little way... whats so bad about that???

He was just trying to be one of the guys, then ACK cut him down, then zeratul2400 had a nervous breakdown, he hasnt been back on the forums since. most likely he committed suicide after leaving a message like that. ACK got him so upset he couldnt even think straight. That's the kind of arrogance I'm talking about ACK. And he wasn't even asking for help.

But I admit, zeratul2400's response was the most funniest thing I ever read, and heard. And to top it off, someone added music and a voice to it all, making it history... LOL
