I voted around 6 o'clock, it's hard to grab time to go out the house at the moment, so very pleased I was able to make the time.

I voted for UKIP in the general election, but couldn't bring myself to vote for anyone in the local election. Shame really, I was there with the paper in my hand and a pencil, but none of them was worth the effort.

I was tempted to chuck a vote in the local One to the BNP just as a Two fingers to the rest, but I couldn't live with myself if I did.
