Sign me up for the Renforums team, assuming they'll have me.

Starcraft 2 owned your video card? They had a problem where the menu dint cap the frame rate and your gpu will go 100% causing overheats. I have been playing it a lot to .

It was just a shitty heatsink on the card. Funny thing is that I'll probably have a replacement in before the match, but whatever, a commitment is a commitment.
