No one here is going to understand what is going through your head and why you are using an alias of 'Jesus' and acting in the manner that you are, but if for some reason you feel you have reason to I am most certainly positive that the real Jesus would not be posting on an internet forum for help. The only thing you will find here is jokers and antagonists. If you have a real problem and you feel you need some advice from here, I would advise you to act normal and not as if you are impersonating Jesus. There are a lot of intelligent people here, but they do not respect false acts or personality impersonations. My advice is go talk to God, but feel free to pursue advice from an internet forum.
