I'm fairly confident that if you were to look at this thread with an objective view point, you would come to the same conclusion that everyone who isn't Dickhole Productions-sponsored has come to:

You decided to make a shitty thread in an attempt to goad me into replying, since you never post here and have no legitimate interest in these forums because you admittedly hate Renegade and think it's shitty.

You then proceeded to bring in your buddies when I came in, as expected, because you can't handle being criticized.

After your buddies got shut the fuck down, you continued posting inane bullshit in an attempt at obfuscating the true reason why you're here.

Once your rationale for being here had been exposed several times, you attempted to get Crimson involved - except she banned your buddy Old Man Faggotton instead of me.

Now you're on the defensive, and you know you should leave but you're too used to getting your ass kicked IRL, so you stay in the ring and keep taking a beating.

GameStop lol

Get shit on.
