no, you never actually said you wanted to fight me you tried to sound like a tough guy and in doing so suggested you wanted to fight me, however if you were unarmed, it wouldn't end well for you tell me again, why should i take 5 hours out of my day to drive across the state and see you? and then afterwards, drive 5 hours back?

for the record, people said you think of yourself as a ReneGod, or they said it in a sarcastic manner acting as if they truly meant it just makes you look like a child trying to win an argument with a parent
