tell me again, why should i take 5 hours out of my day to drive across the state and see you? and then afterwards, drive 5 hours back?

for the record, people said you think of yourself as a ReneGod, or they said it in a sarcastic manner acting as if they truly meant it just makes you look like a child trying to win an argument with a parent

Where the hell would you be driving to? My mapquest shows 2-2.5 hours as being midway.

P.S. You're still a punk bitch

P.P.S. Your maths is bad.
