go back and re-read the posts in this topic if you actually care about what's going on; i understand that you dislike Iran, but you're starting to look like Fred blaming everything on Red Herring in the scooby doo kids show lol

Although there was a exploit that did cause the fds to crash which is what Wilo was doing to Jelly, I'm sure others knew about this too.

tbh, it wouldn't surprise me, if he was actually behind these attacks as he certainly possesses the knowledge to do so.

althou I dislike iran .I do find it wrong to say he may or maynot be attacking servers. rumors and lie's will spawn from this thread and in to other forums and game. till it get's to the point where it becomes true renegade history fact .

and lets be real there are loads of players or ppl that used to play who could be doing this for lots of reasons.

it could even be you azazel ? who knows
