not everyone can have their parents pay for everything (not a jab - just a fact)

Woah woah woah! Didn't realize I had 2 options besides having my own job ;p Fuck working, I'm going on government assistance AND living with my parents!

On a more serious note I'm fine with government assistance/people living with their parents as long as they're still trying to get a job; however there are plenty around here that don't try and just coast off one or the other or a combination of the two (which annoys me to fuck and back).
