Hello Guys,

As you can tell I'am new to this forum but not new to the community I have been gaming for about 25 1/2 + yrs now. Currently 39 yrs of age. The point is. I use to have a BR Serial Number when I use to keep servers up alot awhile go. But then I quite and now that I wanna come back I have reinstalled , Net Framework , BR , FDS. Now I'am stuck! I HAVE LOST MY serial number that I need to put in under "FDS Config" in BR. I have e-mailed Westwood - a.k.a EA GAMES. They havent helped me at all. Is there anyway in receiving a serial number for BR anymore. A way to use BR without this serial?
