Subject: FORMAT....
Posted by gibberish on Thu, 04 Dec 2003 02:42:08 GMT

Although NAT != Firewall.

The majority of self replicating (No user intervention required) viruses cannot penetrate a NAT router.

Hence a fairly safe and fairly cheap solution is to connect via a NAT router then make MS windows update your first site to download all the patches.
Especially the Internet Explorer ones.

After that you will probably be ok.

PS You could always consider installing a virus scanner :biggrin: