ive been working on ren alert map as well as Deadaim Here is a pic of it so far, it shows the allies island base

There will be a small island with spawning gunboats below the airfield, and to the right of the main base. The soviets will have an aircraft carrier out to sea a little, but I havnt made it yet lol The map will only have naval and flying units, no ground except for maybe a few spawning rangers around the allies base since its so big.
