I didn't mean anything to sound like, "OMG...he hit me! WAR!!!!!!" It's to be used as a last defense. The Iraqi war was to get rid of someone who was supplying money to fuel a terrorist group which threatens not just the US, but the whole world. I'm not saying that it was completely just, I'm just saying that it's not a sin to do what's right. The wars that God led Isreal into, were because they were disobedient once they were in the promised land. God let Isreal fight so they could live in peace.
