I have no passion to see the "Passion". Mainly because of Mel Gibsons higher than thou attitude to all religion other than the Catholic. He has been quoted saying "If you are not a devout Catholic you will be going to hell". He also said that his wife is going to hell because she is Episcopalian and not Catholic. He thinks that any non-Catholic is bearing false god(s). Geeze what religion prays to people other than God? I can tell you it is not the Lutheran, but the Catholics pray to Mary and all the saints. None of which are the body of god and Christ. So I feel Gibson is going to skew this movie to his hard-line views and expect us to take it.
